

Sudan 2010

Appealing Agency	SOUTH SUDAN LAW SOCIETY (SSLS)
Project Title	Legal Awareness on Land and Property Rights LALPR
Project Code	SDN-10/P-HR-RL/30458
Sector/Cluster	PROTECTION
Objectives	1. To increase the protection of civilians and the respect and realisation of their rights through targeted and coordinated responses to identified needs, taking into account age, gender and diversity.2. To improve government prevention of and response to violations by strengthening the capacity of authorities to fulfil their responsibility to protect civilians and respect human rights, with particular attention to vulnerable groups (such as children/youth, women, IDPs and refugees)3. To empower communities and individuals to know and exercise their rights, in particular the rights of women and children
Beneficiaries	Paralegals 270, Community leaders 300, radio talk shows, 45, IEC materials 4500, posters, 3000, legal Aid Clinic clients 4500, Court monitoring 1050, drama performance 21, dissemination of human rights awareness materials 8000 Children: 200 Women: 630 Other group: 3,600
Implementing Partners	N/A
Project Duration	Jan 2010 - Dec 2010
Current Funds Requested	$662,400.00
Location	South Sudan
Priority	C - LOW

Needs

Illegal squatters, land grabbing and forceful evictions from the places of origin, domination of land cases in the judiciary, SSLS Legal Aid Clinic, and JCC, physical injuries as a result of assault due to land dispute and conflict. Animal grazing in other peoples lands and crops destroyed, demolitions of illegal squatters with the pretext that the town is beautified, roads expanded, health threats. Border disputes, between communities, states of Southern Sudan and South v North. Biasness in court of law, and delay in judgements and execution of court decrees.

Activities

Operating legal Aid clinic in the three (3) states of Greater Equatoria,, Central Western and Eastern Equatoria States preferably on the land and property Rights for the Returnees, IDPs and the host community. Conduct awareness for returnees on their property rights. Organize and facilitate training for the police and local leaders on land and property rights, Create human Rights awareness through trainings, radio talk shows and drama on land and property rights in greater Equatoria, Western, Eastern and Central Equatoria. Conduct training for Community paralegal workers on land and property Rights. Representing clients in the court of law and triunals, on land and property rights, with special emphasis on women and children,s property Rights. Dissemination of awareness materials, posters, fliers and others. Production of IEC materials. Consultative meetings with the stake holders, actors, government officials, religious leaders, community leaders and UN/Agencies and indegenous NGOs.

Outcomes

Improvement in the administration of Justice, land titles respected, demarcations of idle lands, gender desk created in at the police stations and other rule of law institutions, trained police posted for services delivery, human rights respected including the right to own property and to privacy, stigma among the HIV positive people get reduced, rights to employment and job opportunities availed to all skilled persons irrespective of their status and sex. among others.

South Sudan Law Society
Original BUDGET items	$
Staff	96,000
Operations	390,900
Program costs, equipment and supplies	165,000
Other Costs and services	10,500
Total	662,400

South Sudan Law Society
Current BUDGET items	$
Staff	96,000
Operations	390,900
Program costs, equipment and supplies	165,000
Other Costs and services	10,500
Total	662,400